Membership Form 2010-2011

The Lovejoy Gifted Association (LGA) is a not-for-profit advocacy group for all gifted children in the Lovejoy Independent School District (LISD). The main goals of LGA are:

- supporting and creating expanded opportunities for the education of gifted students of all ages and their families,
- locating, utilizing and creating resources for educational opportunities for all persons interested in gifted and talented education, and
- serving as an advocate in supporting local, state and national legislative programs that benefit education for gifted students.

We strive to be effective advocates for gifted students and a valuable source of information for parents, teachers, and administrators.

MEMBERSHIP

Membership in LGA is open to all persons interested in the mission of the organization.

Membership dues go toward programs and information for parents, teacher training, and student scholarships.

Family memberships are $20 for up to 2 adults plus children; LISD & AISD Staff Memberships are discounted to $10 per family.
