The Dallas Museum of Art would like to invite you to enjoy our special free Family Celebrations designed just for children on the Autism Spectrum and their families. Pre-registered families can visit the Museum free of charge and enjoy the Center for Creative Connections before the Museum opens to the public.

Enjoy a morning filled with art! Families can participate in gallery experiences, enjoy storytelling performances, create a masterpiece in the Art Studio, and discover textures in the galleries. Following this private event, families are invited to stay when the Museum opens at 11:00 a.m. to enjoy additional family programming.

Pre-registration is required, space is limited. For more information or to register for the event, please e-mail your name, phone number, and the number of people in your family who will attend to access@DallasMuseumofArt.org. Registration for each event begins one month prior to event.

Family initiatives are funded by Catherine and Will Rose and the Pollock Foundation Education Endowment Fund. New family learning experiences are supported by a grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Services. The Museum's Gateway Gallery Endowment Fund, the Mr. and Mrs. H. Lee Hobson Endowment Fund, the Betty Moroney Norsworthy Education Endowment Fund, and the Karen and Richard Pollock Education Endowment Fund provide a permanent source of support for family and community programs.

Annual support for family and community programs is provided by the Junior League of Dallas, and a leadership gift from the Dedman Foundation. Promotional support provided by

The Dallas Museum of Art is supported by the generosity of Museum members and donors and by the citizens of Dallas through the City of Dallas/Office of Cultural Affairs and the Texas Commission on the Arts.
